

Is a Micro Business is Right For You?

By Carol Topp, CPA

The main purpose of a micro business is to learn while earning money. Micro owners are interested in learning everything they can about running a business. They intend to make money from their micro, but learning is paramount in their minds.

The goal is to learn and earn

Running a micro will teach you to:

- manage your time
- serve customers
- overcome shyness
- be unique
- express yourself
- gain confidence
- balance commitments
- overcome fear
- multi task
- and much more

It might be overwhelming to be stretched to learn by doing new things, but it can be exciting too as you grow in confidence and success. Here's some encouraging advice from the Bible that the apostle Paul gave to his student, Timothy.

Don't let anyone look down on you for being young. Instead, make your speech, behavior, love, faith, and purity an example for other believers. (1 Timothy 4:12)

Do you want to learn more about whether a micro business is right for you?

Sign up for my free mini e-course 5 Reasons Why a Micro Business is Right For You at MicroBusinessForTeens.com

You'll receive 5 emails, one a day for the next 5 days, explaining why a micro business might be the best way for you to earn money.

Carol Topp, CPA (MicroBusinessforTeens.com) is the author of Micro Business for Teens and operates an accounting practice (a micro business!) that specializes in tax preparation, small/micro business start-ups, and nonprofit accounting. She enjoys helping teenagers and families start an run successful micro businesses.