

Homeschool Co-ops: Tips and Traps for Leaders

Presenter Carol Topp, CPA

HomeschoolCPA.com

Pros of co-ops:

Huge influence on the next generation, raising the academic standard, encouraging tired homeschool parents and fighting homeschool critics.

Cons of Co-ops:

Responsibility for children's safety, money, legal status, volunteers and hired workers.

A lot of work!

Leader Traps

No help = burnout

Founder's syndrome

Ignorance

Leader Tips

Attitude

You cannot be all things to all people-so stop trying

Your co-op is not essential to the success of homeschooling!

You are not responsible for homeschooling other peoples' children!

Tools

Board: Have committees, schedule regular meetings, keep minutes

Budget: Planning with dollars. List your sources of income (fees, fundraisers, donations), expenses and some extra for uncertainties.

Bylaws: rules of how an organization will operate. Usually include a mission statement: We are _____ and we do _____

Policies and guidelines help you to avoid making decisions while in a crisis.

Sample bylaws at HomeschoolCPA.com/leader-tools/sample-documents.

Knowledge

Nonprofit status

The IRS and tax exempt status

Fundraisers

Reimbursement policies

Paying workers

Nonprofit Status and Tax Exempt Status

You're a nonprofit if you are organized (board and bylaws) and operate like one (no profit motive and no one pockets the money). Nonprofit is not the same as tax exempt though! Nonprofit status is like a married couple. Tax benefits come only after filing the correct tax form (IRS Form 1023 for homeschool co-ops)

Automatic tax exemption to: groups with annual gross revenues under $5,000, 501(c)(7) Social Clubs (most support groups) or under the ministry of a church.

If you are a nonprofit, you have four choices:

1. Stay under $5,000/year (but you'll still need to file an 990N annually)
2. Find a church
3. File to be 501(c)(3) educational organization
4. Pay your taxes

Required annual IRS filing for ALL small nonprofits (under $50,000 annual gross revenues): Form 990-N due 4 ½ months after end of fiscal year. File online at <http://epostcard.form990.org>. Failure to file for 3 consecutive years results in automatic revocation of tax exempt status (even the automatic tax exempt status). You may owe back taxes and will need to reapply for tax exempt status.

Paying Workers: Employee or independent contractor. Must give Form 1099MISC to any independent contractor paid $600 or more in a calendar year.

Fund raisers: No individual fund raising accounts. All fund raiser proceeds must stay in general fund.

Resources at HomeschoolCPA.com.

Homeschool Co-ops book and ebook

The IRS and Your Homeschool Organization book and ebook

Money Management in a Homeschool Organization: A Guide for Treasurers book and ebook

Paying Workers in a Homeschool Organization ebook

One by One: Homeschool Group Leaders Guide to Motivating Your Members ebook at www.HomeschoolGroupLeader.com

Free webinars on paying workers, fundraisers, and 501(c)(3) tax exempt status at:

<http://homeschoolcpa.com/bookstore/free-webinars/>

Facebook group: I am a Homeschool Group Leader

My podcast: <http://DollarsAndSenseShow.com> has episodes for homeschool leaders.

Consultation by phone, Skype, or Google+ video chat with your leaders. Email Carol@HomeschoolCPA.com